Description

Premium Offers Invited - To include lease, fixtures, fittings & equipment — trading name excluded. (Stock at valuation.)

This is a rare opportunity to acquire a well-established, free-of-tie (not attached to a brewery) public house situated in an excellent location, offering spacious trading areas, a generous garden, and substantial living accommodation. The property enjoys a strong local reputation, and often hosts popular live music events along with a strong food offering.

The ground floor features an inviting trading area providing approximately 35 covers inside, with a further 50 covers available in the attractive garden. A fully fitted commercial kitchen with extraction system is included, presenting a genuine turnkey opportunity for a new operator. Please note that the kitchen is fitted with electric cookers and there is no gas supply to the premises.

On the first floor, there are three well-proportioned double bedrooms, each with en-suite facilities. This accommodation can be accessed either directly from a separate street entrance or internally from the pub, offering ideal potential for use as bed and breakfast rooms or staff accommodation.

The second floor provides a spacious office and an additional double bedroom with its own en-suite bathroom, suitable for use as a manager's suite or further guest accommodation.

To the rear of the property, the garden area can accommodate up to 50 covers and benefits from a newly installed awning over the patio, creating a welcoming outdoor dining and entertainment space. Two garages are also located at the rear, providing valuable storage facilities and off-street parking.

Please note that our clients have undertaken a high standard of refurbishment since taking on the premises, including the installation of new furniture, enhancements to the outdoor area with new speakers and an awning, and new carpets throughout the upper floors.

Accounts are not available for review.

The property has an EPC Rating of Band B. Early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the full potential this pub has to offer.
